DR. LANKFORD IS DENOUNCED

Resolutions of Resentment Passed by Both Houses of Legislature.

DOCTOR'S STATEMENT.

Anti-Saloon League Suggests That Opinion Was Only That of One Man—Elect Officers.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 24.—Resolutions denouncing in the most scathing terms the utterances of Dr. Livius Lankford before the Anti-Saloon League Thursday, were unanimously adopted by both houses of the General Assembly yesterday after several speakers in each branch of the legislature had mercilessly arraigned and scathed the Norfolk doctor for his "inflammatory language."

Both resolutions declared Dr. Lankford's speech to be insulting, untrue and unwarranted, and the records of the two houses will show for all time that he was denounced.

Senator Wendenburg's speech was one of the most pitiless and scorching heard in the Senate in recent years.

Dr. Lankford is reported as having said "that any member of the General Assembly who votes against the enabling act is actuated by one of three reasons—either he is a man with the price and the goods have been delivered, or he is related to a liquor dealer and has not enough manhood to go home and say he voted against the whiskey interests, or he is the descendant of a weakling."

Delegate Graham Hobson, of Richmond, arose to a question of personal privilege in the House, as soon as that body convened and said:

"I hold in my hand a copy of a Richmond paper. I do not know whether this man Lankford is quoted correctly or not. When I voted against the passage of the enabling act, I voted for what I thought was right. I have lived in this city all my life and this is the first time my honesty was ever assailed.

"Mr. Speaker, I do not know the man who made this statement, but I hope to know him soon. I wish to state that if he is quoted correctly, he is guilty of telling an infamous falsehood. Any one who would make such a statement is unworthy of the name of a man. I do not know whether the man is quoted correctly, but I hope that the demagogue is in the sound of my voice, and that I may have the pleasure of telling him to his face what I think of him, which I cannot tell here out of respect for the house.

"It is because of such utterances those attributed to Lankford that have caused many to vote against the enabling act in the past."

Delegate Land, of Nottoway, made the following statement:"I have been shown the reputed statements of Dr. Lankford, of Norfolk, as to those members of the House who voted against the enabling act. Such utterances can only have their origin in the minds of imbeciles or the innately vicious. No honorable man need fear character attacks from either of these since such assassins are usually known and measured at their real worth.' '

When Assemblyman Land gave this statement to the press he said: "Dr. Lankford would not dare make such statements to the faces of the members of the General Assembly as he made behind their backs. Neither would he address an individual member of the legislature as he has insulted them collectively."

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 24.—"I had reference to the defeat of the enabling act of two years ago," said Dr. Livius Lankford last night, when told that his speech before the Anti-Saloon League in Richmond yesterday had called forth denunciations from both branches of the General Assembly.

In explaining the part of his speech in which he said a man who voted against the enabling act was actuated by three things: "either as a man with a price and the goods have been delivered, or he is relative of a liquor dealer and has not the manhood to go home and say that he voted against the dealer, or he is a descendant of a weakling," Dr. Lankford said:

"I stated that the best up-to-date German and French medical investigators had proved to the medical world that chronic alcoholism seriously impaired the brain of men.

"Knowing from a medical standpoint the disastrous consequences of alcoholism, I feel very much interested in this subject. I had references in my address in Richmond to the defeat of the enabling act of two years ago. But neither did I mean to reflect on the men then or now composing the Legislature if they voted against the act conscientiously.

"I am not retracting anything, but just explaining," he aded.

In the report of the resolutions committee, submitted yesterday at the afternoon session of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia convention, one paragraph virtually repudiated the remarks made by Dr. Livius Lankford, the Norfolk surgeon, in reference to those members of the General Assembly who voted against the enabling act. While mentioning no names, the resolutions set forth that the organization does not hold itself responsible for the utterances of any speaker r member who may address its meetings except in those cases where such utterances are specifically indorsed by resolution or when they become a part of the report of some official of the league that has been approved by the league itself.

With the three sessions yesterday, the thirteenth annual convention came to an end.

The following are the newly-elected officers:

President, J. W. Hough, Norfolk; vice-presidents—P. V. D. Conway, Fredericksburg; Governr William Hodges Mann, Richmond; Rev. W. C. Campbell, D. D., Roanoke; Rev. G. S. Bowers, Winchester; A. T. Lincoln, Marion; G. T. Foltz, Wytheville; R. E. Tyler, Staunton; Dr. S. C. Mitchell, Richmond; W. F. Hale, Nokesville; H. G. McWane, Lynchburg; S. F. Rogers, Onancock; Judge John L. Kelly, Bristol; secretary, J. D. McAlister, Richmond; treasurer, S. P. Jones, Richmond; attorney, Thomas Whitehead, Amherst; legislative committee—Rev. James Cannon, Jr., J. D. McAlister, E. J. Richardson, David Hepburn, J. W. Hough, W. H. Vincent, R. S. Barbour, Thomas Whitehead, Rev . J. Sidney Peters. The State executive committee, of which Rev. James Cannon, Jr., is chairman, remained unchanged, in the nominating committee's report, except for the addition of Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson, of Richmond, and J. Sidney Peters, of Richmond.

FIGHT FOR PATRONAGE

Eastern and Western United States Marshalships Bones of Contention.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Virginia's patronage fight at the present time is centered around the two United States marshalships for that State. The absence of Secretary of Treasury McAdoo and his duties with the work of organizing the country under the new banking act have caused a halt in the fight over the internal revenue collectorship and the collector of customs for the Virginia district.

Both marshalships are now vacant. The term of Clarence W. Smithers, who holds down the job in the eastern district of Virginia, expires today. The job in the western district of the state is vacant by resignation. The Eastern district job pays $3,500 and the one in the Western district $4,000.

There are no end of applicants for the two appointments, which will be recommended to the President by the Attorney-General. For the Eastern district nomination there are half a dozen who would like to take up the work to be laid down by Mr. Smithers. Senators Martin and Swanson have not endorsed any applicants.

For the Western district plum the lines are more markedly drawn. Senators Martin and Swanson and Representative Saunders are behind Lee Clark, of Patrick county. Representative Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, intends to make a hard fight for Colonel Sidney Shelton, of Christiansburg.

Representative Wm A. Jones, of the First district, is Mr. Ailworth's strongest supporter.

MR. & MRS. SAYRE IN VIOLENT STORM

Steamer Majestic Passes Through Serious Disturbance on Ocean.

ACCIDENT TO BRIDE.

Ship Swept by Giant Waves—Passengers Knocked Down—Saloons and Staterooms Flooded.

New York, Jan. 24.—With thanksgiving at reaching port after encountering storms that threatened the safety of the ship, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, son-in-law and daughter of President Wilson landed from the Majestic here today. They were met in quarentine by Miss Margaret Wilson.

But for the heroic efforts of Capt. Beadnell, passengers declare, the vessel would never have reached port. Mrs. Sayre was hurled to the floor of her stateroom on Sunday and suffered a sprained wrist.

Every passenger on board complained of the terrific storms encountered. The Majestic was tossed violently on the seas.

It was on Sunday that the storm reached its height. Many passengers were knocked down in the state rooms by the violent rolling of the ship, it was declared. Mrs. Reed Harris, 328 West 76th street, New York, said it was on that day that Mrs. Sayre injured her wrist.

On Sunday the waves broke over the vessel and entered the social and dining saloons. The water smashed a post in the dining room.

One passenger declared the water had entered his drawing room, saturating much of his clothing. Sayre told him his drawing room had also been soaked.

Captain Beadnell was almost constantly on the bridge. The Sayres sat at his table, but only twice was the captain able to dine with them.

On the promise of photographers that they would not bother them again, Sayre and his bride posed on the deck of the Majestic

"We had a fine trip," said Sayre. "All but a week of our time was spent in London and we met the most charming and interesting people. We visited mostly sociological institutions. We enjoyed the week in Paris, but did not go out for the night life."

The bridal couple will leave for Washington with Miss Margaret Wilson today. On February. Sayre will take up his duties as assistant to President Garfield of Williams College.

BYRD LIQUOR LAW UPHELD.

Unlawful Even to Give Ardent Spirits to Man Who is Drunk in Your Home.

Richmond, Jan. 24.—By refusing a writ of error in the case of James Crawford against the Commonwealth, the State Supreme Court yesterday upheld the construction placed upon the Byrd law by the Circuit Court of Rockingham county, which was that it is unlawful to give or furnish an intoxicated man with ardent spirits. Crawford was fined $50 by a jury at the September term of the Circuit Court of Rockingham county for giving a glass of wine to Bernard McDaniels in his own home while the latter was under the influence of liquor.

The Supreme Court also decided that a State license is not to be required for the operation of billard and pool tables in clubs, where the tables are for use of members only. A writ of error was refused in the case of the Commonwealth against the Elks' Home, Inc., appealed from the Corporation Court of Roanoke. The commissioner of revenue had a suit brought against the Elks' Home for failure to secure a State license for the billard and poolroom operated in the home. The contention was made by the club that the tables were not operated for revenue, but solely for the recreation of the members, and that the fee charged for using them was levied only to cover the cost of upkeep.

He will show that there are fads in religion as well as in some other things, but that the old gospel is the same as it always was, and as it always will be. It is indeed a fact that there are many new cults, some of them founded by the basest of men that "deceive the very elect"—and strange to say, the elect seem to be the people that the deceivers are after, and not the men and women of no faith. These subjects promise to be interesting.

Rev. W. F. Watson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, will have for his subject tomorrow, the following: 11 a. m., "Illustrations of the Christian Faith" 7:45 p. m., "The Lord's Song in Strange Lands."

(Special Dispatch to the Gazette.)

WILSON WILL MEET SENATORS MONDAY

To Hold Conference on Japanese Alien Law and Mexican Situation.

NOTHING GIVEN OUT.

Washington Officialdom Will Await Developments—Considerable Interest Concerning Outcome.

Developments of an important character in the Mexican situation are expected to follow a conference Monday evening between President Wilson and the Republican and Democratic senators of the Committee on Federal Relations.

The President sent invitations to the Senators Wednesday, but all information on the subject has been withheld.

Members of the committee have received no intimation from the White House as to the subject of the conference, but they expect to hear something about Mexico.

Since the Huerta government defaulted on the payment of interest on the national debt, the international complications have thickened, and many foreign nations are looking anxiously to the United States to bring order out of the chaos of Mexican finances

According to one report today Mexico will not be the only subject for consideration, but Panama Canal tolls, the Japanese alien land controversy, the unratified arbitration treaties, and the proposed Bryan peace treaties will also be discussed.

THE HINDU MENACE.

Secretary Wilson Recommends Barring of Immigrants of Race From Country.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Labor, suggested to Congress that the doors of the United States be closed to the Hindu laborer.

Injury to labor conditions on the Pacific coast through an already unaccountable influx of Hindus, and posible extension to the Southern states, were the reasons given by Mr. Wilson for urging their immediate exclusion.

The Secretary's views were expressed in a letter to Speaker Clark in response to a request from Chairman Burnett, of the House Immigration Committee, for information on pending bills. While the Secretary did not discuss with President Wilson the questions brought up in a letter, he wrote, he said, after Commissioner General Caminetti, of the Immigration Bureau, had consulted John Bassett Moore and learned that no treaty would be violated if the recommendations were carried out.

The Secretary suggested that the "Asiatic laborer" be defined as including all aliens east of a certain boundary line except those whose immigration already is regulated by agreements or understanding between the Unitel States and the governments in the Far East.

To solve the problem of Asiatic immigration Mr. Wilson proposed that a physical test, such as is required from recruits to the United States army be administered before any Asiatic laborers, as the term is to be defined, are admitted.

Physically defective aliens from Persia, Turkistan, Afghanistan, Siam, and other Asiatic countries could thereby be prevented from entering into competition with American labor without violating any treaties. Mr. Wilson believes athere would be no discrimination against any particular country. He suggested also that perhaps all immigrants intending to do manual labor might well be subjected to a physical test.

(Special Dispatch to the Gazette.)

WOULD CONTROL WEATHER.

Sir Oliver Lodge Suggests Rain Can be Made to Order.

London, Jan. 24.—Sir Oliver Lodge the distinguished physicist and principal of Birmingham University, in an addres before the Institute of Electrical Engineers Thursday night, suggested the possibility of obtaining some measure of control over the weather.

If clearing weather, he said, was due to electricity, it might be imagined that man could acquire some control over the electrification of the atmosphere.

If it was desired to produce rain, why not send up a kite to reach the clouds? He believed that if enough electricity were discharged into the clouds the drops would behave there as they did in the laboratory; they would coalesce and, once that had happened, the process might the repeated and cause a shower.

When rain was wanted, the lecturer said, negative electricity should be sent up, and if fine weather was wanted, positive electricity.

HOUSE DISCUSSES THE NEW TAX LAW

Difference as to Rate and Method of Collection on Bank Deposits.

STRIKE OUT CLAUSE.

Delegate Jordan Offers Substitute Bill in Line With Views Expressed By Governor-Elect.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 24.—Two hours of debate yesterday in the House of Delegates over the question of taxation on deposits in bank, while it reached no final action, served to show a wide difference of opinion on the part of the members. The fight was renewed today when the result of conferences held last night with the hope of a satisfactory compromise were outlined. The House refused to take up out of its order the bill already passed by the Senate segregating the tax to the State and prohibiting taxation of bank deposits by the counties and cities, and fixing a 10-cent rate for State taxaton.

Later, the House bill, similar in its general provisions, was reached on the calendar. Realizing that there was little chance of securing a three-fourths vote for the bill at that rate its patron, Mr. Weaver, moved to strike out the emergency clause, which motion was adopted. A motion to reconsider this action, with a view of compromising on a higher rate of tax, was pending when the House adjourned.

Delegate Jordan ffered as a substitute the bill supported by Governor-elect Henry C Stuart, proposing for segregation of the tax to the State, for a fixed rate of 25 cents on $100, for collection through the banks, each bank paying on the total of its deposits, less outstanding checks, and charging the tax pro-rata to each depositor, thus insuring to the state the absolute collection. This phase of the bill followed lines laid down in the new Federal Income tax law.

The Echols bill, providing for the segregation of tax o nbank deposits to the State and fixing the rate at 10 cents on $100, came up on the calendar as Senate bill No. 1, on its second reading.

Chairman Weaver, of the House Finance Committee, defended the bill as being in many respects identical with the measure already reported by his committee after a memorable hearing in which both Governor Mann and Governor-Elect Stuart participated.

The vote was taken on Mr. Weaver's motion to dispense with the further reading of the bill. The vote stood: ayes, 52; noes, 35, and not being a two-thirds vote, it was declared rejected.

The House having refused to suspend the rules, the bill was passed to its third reading, and came up in the form in which it passed the senate as the first bill on the calendar today.

MUZZLE PRESS AMID RIOT.

Armed Guards Thrown Opposition Out of Hungarian Parliament.

Budapest, Jan. 24.—Armed guards had to be called into the lower house of the Hungarian Parliament yesterday to eject unruly members of the opposition during a debate on the press reform law. Ex-Premier Count Julius Andrassy, Count Alder Ziehy, and a dozen other deputies were thrown out of the building, after defying a ruling by the President.

The uproar was so great it was impossible to conduct business until the wearied members of the Opposition had quit the House in a body.

As a result of the insults bandied across the floor of the House, Deputy Desy challenged Count Stephen Tisza, the Hungarian Premier, to fight a duel.

The press reform law was carried after the tumult had subsided. The bill is designed to protect the government against attacks by the press, but the Opposition insists that it imperils the freedom of the Hungarian people.

Mrs. Isaac E. Gregg was the hostess yesterday afternoon of a most enjoyable Five Hundred party at her home in King street. Mrs. Gregg was assisted in receiving the guests by her mother, Mrs. R. C. Acton. The ladies were first ushered into the dining room where Mrs. Richard Acton, assisted by Mrs. Wilmer Joyce Waller, served the most refreshing punch. The table was a pretty picture. Little Miss Josephine Gregg, with engaging manner, presented the guests with an attractive score-card and kept tally for the game. The prizes were especially attractive. The first, a mahogany tray, was won by Mrs. D. The first day of the intermediate examinations will be on Monday, January 26th. All the pupils will be required to report to the school building Monday morning for the purpose of ascertaining the examinations in which they are exempt. Botany will be taken up by the Sophomores after the intermediates Not as much time as was put on physiology will be spent on this subject, as the class wishes to get an introduction to physics before the end of the term.

The A. H. S. basketball team was defeated by the Georgetown Prep in Washington Wednesday afternoon by the score of 36 to 16. The High School quint, with their usual line-up put up a stiff game, but were greatly outweighed.

The seniors have finished their compositions on "Hamlet." So well were they written that several have been read to the other classes.

In a hotly contested game between Manassas High School basketball team and the Alexandria High School team at the Armory Hall last night, the A. H. S. won. The game was hard fought throughout, but the superior teamwork of the Alexandria quint proved to much in the end for their strong opponents. Hayes and Raison starred for Alexandria High School, while Roads and Adamson starred for Manassas. Below is the line-up of the game:

A. H. S.	Position	Manassas
Wenzel	L. F.	Adamson
Sullivan	R. G.	Green

CHARGE AGAINST MINISTER.

Virgina Lutheran Pastor Arrested on Federal Warrant.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 24.—The Rev. B. F. Landis, a Lutheran minister of Prices Fork, Montgomery county, Va., was arrested yesterday by Deputy United States Marshall J. H. Hawley upon a warrant charging the minister with violation of the Mann white slave act.

The minster was arraigned before United States Commissioner Proffit at Floyd, Va., and his case set for February 10.

The Rev. Landis, it is charged in the warrant, paid the transportation from Prices Fork to Bluefield, Va., of the wife of a neighbor. The couple, the warrant alleges, registered at a hotel in West Virgnia as brother and sister, remaining several days. The hotel people, it is claimed, grew suspicious, investigated affairs, and the warrant followed.

HEALTH IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Movement for Special "Health Day" in February.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 24.—Through the co-operation of the State Board of Health, the Co-Operative Education Association and the State Bureau of Rural Colored Schools of the Department of Public Instruction plans have been formulated and have just been announced for the observance of health day during February in all the rural schools of the Commonwealth.

The leagues of the Co-Operative Education Association will devote their February meeting to the discussion of public health questions, and, in particular, to the consideration of methods by which the school buildings and surroundings can be made more sanitary. In the colored schools the exercises will be held February 12th, which is the date usually set aside for special celebrations.

For the use of the leagues and for the guidance of teachers who must direct the program, the State Board of Health has in preparation and will soon send to the press a special "Health Day Manual." This will contain full instructons for the observance of the day, together with suggestions for the better santation of schools.

Suffragette Bomb.

Glasgow, Jan. 24.—After a watchman in the Kebble Palace botanical gardens today risked his life to extinguish the fuse of a suffragette bomb, a second bomb exploded in the palace, wrecking buildings and destroying some of the most valuable rare plants in great Britain.

Footprints outside of the house where the bomb exploded, convinced the police that the affair was the work of militants.

A watchman discovered the first bomb and extinguished its sputtering fuse with his hand. He then ran to call the police, and the other bomb exploded with a terrific repor, heard for blocks.

SYRIAN IMPOSTER.

Presented Letters From Norfolk Ministers And Reaped Financial Harvest.

Bristol, Jan. 24.—Rev. C. Mohammed, an Asyrian preacher of Norfolk, Va., was arraigned here Thursday night charged with fleecing a number of charitably disposed Bristolians. Armed with recommendations from many church people he visited a number of people of Bristol and aroused their sympathy over his supposedly destitute condition and his efforts to get back to Norfolk to his family. A good-sized relief fund was made up and turned over to him.

One of the contributors became suspicious and wired the Rev. Mr. Squires of Norfolk, Va. The latter knew of Mohammed, and when his answer was received a warrant was issued for the foreigner.

When arrested Mohammed had a roll of bills amounting to considerably over one hundred dollars in addition to what he got down from the Bristol people.

RISKS HER LIFE TO SAVE CAT.

Woman Rushes Into Burning Building and Rescues Pet.

Suffolk, Va., Jan .24.—Risking her life to save a cat, Mrs. Annie Rhodes was pulled out of her burning home on Jackson street by main force, by firemen Thursday morning. The Rhodes home, owned by Harry January, caught fire about 11 o'clock the entire upper story being destroyed. Frantic over the loss of her furniture, and determined to save her cat, Mrs. Rhodes dashed into the burning rooms, with fire brands falling about her, fighting off the firemen until she got the cat, which was shut up in an upstairs closet. She brought out her pet, claspe' in her arms.

The loss of the building is covered by insurance.

ANTI-TREATING BILL.

Measure Reappears in Measure With Senator Catron as Sponsor.

Richmond, Jan. 24.—The anti-treating bill, which at the last session of the General Assembly aroused a good deal of more or less serious discussion, has made its appearance again, this time with Senator Catron as sponsor. It makes it unlawful for any person to treat another person in any saloon, dramshop, or other place where intoxicating liquor is sold.

Treating is defined as the giving away of intoxicating beverages in any quantity, or the purchase of such beverages by one person for another in any place where these products are sold at retail. The giving away of intoxicants for scientific, religious or medical purposes is exempted.

Each saloon is required by the bill to display conspicuously a sign bill with the lettering, "Treating Prohibited by Law," and violations are made punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $25.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court House of said city on Thursday, January 22nd, 1914. Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

READY TO SUE J. P. MORGAN.

Thornton Bill to Recover Washington Will Adopted.

Richmond, Jan. 24.—J. Pierpont Morgan, of New York, will either return the will of Martha Washington to Virginia at the request of Governor Mann or he will face a suit in the United States courts brought by Virginia to recover stolen property.

Such was the decision of the Senate yesterday when it took up and passed the bill offered by Mr. Thornton, of Fairfax, directing that course on the part of the governor. The bill was on the calendar, and was taken up and passed under a suspension of the rules. It now goes to the house of delegates for concurrence, and there is every reason to believe that body will concur.

Convict Lime Act Held Valid.

Strasburg, Va., Jan. 24.—Judge G. M. Harrison has handed down an opinion affirming the decision of the lower court in the case of the Shenandoah Lime Company against the Governor of Virginia, declaring the act known as the Convict Lime Grinding act constitutional. This act carries an appropriation of $30,000. It was the contention of the complainant companies, five of the largest in the State being located in this vicinity, that the act was passed by the Legislature with the intention of embarking the State on a private business. Judge Harrison stated in his opinion that, according to the law, the court cannot inquire into the motives of the Legislature in passing a bill or the intention of the draftsman, so far as it has not been expressed in the act.

Virginia Sheriff Resigns.

Harrisonburg, Va., Jan. 24.—On account of ill health, E. J. Carickhoff, Sheriff of Rockingham county, has resigned. His nephew, D. E. Croushorn, a deputy sheriff, has been appointed by Judge Haas to fill the unexpired term, which lasts until the end of 1915. Carickhoff was one of the few Democrats elected in 1911, following the factional fight.

Richmond, Jan .24.—Great distress has been caused in the Diocese by the report, early in the week, of the serious illness of Bishop Gibson, of heart trouble, at his home, in Richmond. We are glad to be able to state that the Bishop is recovering and gradually growing stronger; and it is hoped he will soon be in his usual health. —(The Southern Churchman.)

TRAIN ROBBERIES.

Southern Train No. 41 Boarded by Three Men.

Chattanooga, Tenn, Jan. 24.—Three men last night boarded Southern Railway passenger train No. 41, Chattanooga to Tuscumbia, Ala., held up mail clerks and express messengers, emptied mail pouches and the express car safe, and obtained no reward for their trouble.

The robbers found only second-class mail matter, trunks, and packages of food in the cars.

When the train stopped at Fackler, two of the robbers climbed aboard the mail and express cars, while the third swung aboard the locomotive.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—With the assistance of two badly scared porters, a lone robber held up four passengers on the rear sleeper of the Michigan Central passenger train due here from Detroit at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning. It was a seriocomic affair, which netted the bandit something under $300.

The robber entered the train at Jackson, Mich., and left it about fifteen minutes later when Louis Thombs, one of the porters, signalled for the emergency brakes.

Cortlandt Cramp, member of the shipbuilding family of Philadelphia, had $15,000 in money and jewelry with him. The bandit in haste, contented himself with taking $1.20 from Mr. Cramp.

There were about twenty passengers in the car and most of them didn't know rhat anything had happened until they arose yesterday morning. The robbery took place at 1:45 o'clock. There were no women in the car.

Two young men, Frank Donagh and Thomas O'Brien, and a young woman whose identity is unknown, were found dead from gas in a room at 1833 Ridge avenue, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. It was reported in the neighborhood that it was a suicide pact, but the police are of the opinion that it was an accident.

RICHMOND PREACHER SOLICITS QUESTIONS.

The Rev. Thomas Clagely Skinner, D. D., pastor of the Second Baptist Church, of Richmond, will tomorrow begin a series of evening services in which the men of Richmond will express their opinions. To that end, Dr. Skinner has obtained the views of business, professional and workingmen by asking written answers to certain questions, among them the following:

"What in your opinion is the reason men are not as interested in religious matters as women?"

"What in your opinion, is the reason so few laboring men are to be found in the churches?"

Dr. Skinner is believed by many people to be on the right track, as it is evident the church is not appealing to the masses as it should. Union evangelical services were held this month in Alexandria, and while there were large gatherings of church members each night the meetings were held, the number of outsiders was limited, and the class to which the religious organizations are endeavoring to interest seemed to keep as far away as ever.

Forty years ago, when Moody and Sankey were holding meetings in the United States and England church edifices and assembly halls were filled to overflowing, and the revival was almost universal. The Monday morning issues of newspapers in the larger cities devoted pages to sermons delivered in churches the day before, and when the revised New Testament appeared brokers and merchants in New York City crowded into the building from which it was distributed and almost fought for copies. The entire book was sent by telegraph to Chicago papers and those in other cities and the volume was published in its entirety to be read at breakfast tables next morning.

The interest in the book and the One of whom it treats, however, gradually waned, and a long period of lethargy has followed.

There is, however, at present a noticeable revival in religious thought, and in the larger cities men of means are contributing towards meeting the cost of advertisements in the papers and literature which have for their object the stimulating of the spiritual life of the many thousands who seldom enter a place of worship.

Some heralds of the cross, looked upon as tramp or guerilla preachers by the orthdox, have long since tolerated "speaking out in meeting," and provide question boxes for such as do not desire to put questions in open meeting. There are many statements in the Bible more or less mazy to the great majority of honest souls, and when such propound queries they are answered to the best ability of the teachers.

This plan has been found satisfactory in many instances, as it has been seen that multitudes who seldom enter other churches are instructed, encouraged and edified in a manner almost impossible under conditions prevailing in other places.

"DELIVER ME FROM MY FRIENDS."

The utterances of Dr. Livius Lankford, of Norfolk, before the Anti-Saloon League in Richmond, has greatly exasperated all members of the Legislature who do not see their way clear to espouse the radical sentiments of many who are laboring to convert the entire state of Virginia into dry territory.

Dr. Lankford is credited with saying that any member of the General Assembly who votes against the enabling act is actuated by one of three reasons—"either he is a man with a price and the goods have been delivered, or he is related to a liquor dealer and has not enough manhood to go home and say he voted against the whiskey interests, or he is the descendant of a weakling."

An article on the first page of today's Gazette, in which the replies of several legislators to Dr. Lankford are given, is proof conclusive that the latter has been guilty of folly similar to that of the bear who was anxious to keep flies off a sleeping man. In slapping at the flies he seriously injured the face of the man.

It often happens that men are forced to cry out "Deliver me from my friends," and the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia finds itself in the same imploring mood.

Every man who enters the political arena is not gifted with the sagacity requisite for such a pose and organizations have often suffered from wounds received in the houses of their friends.

During the Presidential campaign of 1884, when Grover Cleveland was the candidate of the Democrats for President against James G. Blaine, the Republican nominee, a preacher-lecturer known as Samuel D. Burchard, an admirer of the tatooed man, approached Blaine at a meeting of Republicans and after expressing his admiration of the man from Maine, declared that the latter was fighting against "rum, Romanism and rebellion." The result of that election was close, it hinging upon the result in New York State which gave Cleveland a majority of a few hundred. The preacher's slip of the tongue evidently defeated his candidate.

TO REVISE AND CODIFY STATE LAWS.

The appointment of a commission to revise and codify the statute laws of Virginia into a new Code, to be published by the State as the Code of 1916, has been given unanimous approval at a joint meeting of the House and Senate Committees for Courts of Justice.

The present Code of Virginia was adopted in 1887, since which time a new State Constitution has been proclaimed, and the statute law has been amended in almost every section.

Pollard's Code, in several volumes, has for several years been used, but as this is an expensive work, only a few justices of the peace, notaries and others have purchased the same. Those interested will be glad to know that the state is making arrangements to print a new up-to-date Code.

In this connection attention may be called to the fact that the laws of the city of Alexandria have not been codified and printed in one volume since 1874—forty years ago—when that work was entrusted to the late William F. Carne. The bulk of the laws of the city which have been passed have been gathered and printed in pamphlets, hence only persons compelled to keep in touch with the acts of the city fathers are familiar with the statutes.

On the first of July, 1885, the late John B. Smoot, after having taken the oath as Mayor, delivered an inaugural address. Among other things he called the attention of the joint meeting of the City Council to the fact that the laws of the city should be collated and printed in one volume. At times during the past thirty years the matter has been brought up in Council, but, so far, no definite steps have been taken to carry out the former Mayor's recommendation.

Pressman Commits Suicide.

Richmond, Jan. 24.—Before the startled eyes of several people, John H. Gibbs, a pressman, living at 2008 West Cary street, swallowed the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid while walking in Main street, near Vine, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and died within a few minutes in the doorway of Albert D. Bliley's hardware store, at 1627 West Main street.

AFTER PASSING YEARS.

Alexandria Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is an Alexandria story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Mrs. W. J. Whalen, 1103 Prince street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I willingly repeat the statement I gave for Doan's Kidney Pills some time back, as it is all true. I never let an opportunity pass to recommend this remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a constant pain in the small of my back. After I took them my health was better and I had no more dizzy spells or headaches."

Mrs. Whalen is only one of the many Alexandria people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Whalen had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores. Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

A medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles which has been thoroughly tested for many years, and which has been instrumental in restoring complete health to a large number of sufferers, should be thoroughly investigated by everyone. While no undue claims are made for it, nor any guarantee that its use will restore health, Eckman's Alterative has been given the full credit in saving lives in many cases. Read this case:

Wilmington, Del.

"Gentlemen: In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, one of the leading practitioners of Wilmington, Del., said that it was time to take a change. I took egg and milk diet and rested for about very week. Mr. A. Hinchman, of Hinchman & Co., Department Store, 300 to 314 Market street, Wilmington, Del., recommended to me Eckman's Alterative, that had done a good deal of good, and upon his suggestion I began taking it at once. This was about June, 1908. I continued faithfully using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alterative saved my life."

JAS. COTIES.

Many other testimonials of remarkable cures by Eckman's Alterative has been given by many years test to be most effectious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Threatened Attacks, Stubborn Colds and in rebuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

NEWS OF THE DAY

The American people drank 70,600,000 gallons of whisky, smoked 4,090,300,000 cigars and puffed 8,711,000,000 cigarettes during the six months ended December 31, according to figures announced by Commissioner Osborn, of the Internal Revenue Bureau. The revenue collected from distilled spirits amounted to $85,862,712, the whisky tax being $16,142,854; tobacco, $41,296,593; corporation tax, $3,110,790; cigarettes, $10,899,000, and cigars $12,270,000. The total collection of taxes for the six months totaled $167,647,005, an increase of $4,175,630 over the corresponding period for 1912. The income tax paid under the new law aggregated $1,509. This tax did not have to be paid until March 1.

The London Morning Post, remarking that President Wilson's diplomatic ability may be put to a severe test in the near future, says: "The claims made by Japan regarding the rights of her emigrants in the United States raise questions more perplexing and difficult than any problems of international peace. The difficulty is one which requires something more for its solution than the amiable optimism of the American Secretary of State."

A system making telephonic conversation possible between England and this country has been invented by Dr. G. Musso, an Italian scientist, who has spent ten years completing his invention. The system has been investigated by a representative of Thomas Edison, who expressed satisfaction with it. Dr. Musso has a laboratory in New York, where an artificial cable, representing 3,000 miles of ordinary cable has been installed. Conversation over this with his system was perfectly clear, though a trifle weak. A battery of onlyeighteen dry cells was used.

The extraordinarily cold weather experienced in Paris during the past four weeks, which shows no signs of abating, has caused the prices of food in Paris to rise from 50 to 60 per cent above the ordinary. Potatoes bring nearly double their usual value, while fresh vegetables cost from four to six times regular prices. Old inhabitants recall the siege prices. Railway communication is interrupted by snow, which is from 2 to 4 feet deep in some places. In central and southern France the temperature ranges from 10 to 20 degrees below freezing.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria contnued and held at the Court House of said city on Friday, January 23rd, 1914. Present Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Joseph A. Baur, Complainant,

Vs.

Neliie T. Owens Baur, defendant.

IN CHANCERY.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the Sergeant having made a returnupon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of willful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within 15 days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and do what may be necessary to protect her interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant to-wit: 312 H Street, S .W. Washington, D. Look for the TRIANGLE

LOOK for this triangle before you buy any heater.

It is the trademark of the latest model of the Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater.

It is the sign of the greatest improvements ever made in oil heating devices.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

The Perfection Heater, as now made, gives more heat, holds more oil, is better made and works better than any other heater on the market.

It has a wide, shallow oil font, which allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures reliable, unchanging flame and heat, whether the font is full or nearly empty.

The Perfection is smokeless, because the patent locking flame-spreader prevents the wick being turned up high enough to smoke. It is easy to re-wick, because the carrier and wick are combined—just turn out the old and slip in the new.

Indicator tells how much oil is in the font. Filler plug is pushed in like a cork—no screw, no thread to wear. Attractive latticed window frame.

The Perfection Heater is finished in vitreous turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel drums; looks well, lasts well, easy to carry wherever wanted.

KIDNAPPED GIRL.

Chauffeur Attempts to Run Down Policeman.

New York, Jan. 24.—Detectives are searching for a big, black touring car in which, they believe, two young, pretty, and handsomely dressed girls were kidnapped early Thursday.

With the girls screaming for help, the driver speeding his car down Eighth avenue made a deliberate attempt to run down two policemen. A rain of bullets sent after the car had no effect.

Patrolman Sanders, on fixed post, at Eighth avenue and 136th street, about 3:15 a. m., heard women's screams. He turned and saw the car bearing down upon him.

As it passed under a light he made out one young woman beside the driver and another, with another man, in the tonneau.

"For heaven's sake, help us!" screamed one of the women. "Get us out of this!"

Sanders jumped in front of the car, but the driver aimed directly for him. Sanders leaped aside just in time. He slipped and fell, but was on his feet again in a moment, firing at the tires of the machine.

Patrolman Dough, a block or two farther on, heard the shots and jumped into the street. He had to leap back again as the car bore down upon him. Then he hailed a taxicab which happened along and jumped up beside the driver.

"Follow that car and go the limit," said Dough.

The policeman pulled his gun and began firing at the tires of the fast disappearing machine, which turned at 114th street toward Manhattan avenue and was lost.

It is believed that one of the shots hit the body of the machine. The policeman turned in two license numbers which agreed except as to the last figure.

DEATH OF COL. AUGUST.

Confederate Veteran Passes Away in Washington.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Col. James Armistead August, owner of the Hot Springs of Virginia for some years, and a well-known figure of the civil war, died suddenly at his home, 2316 Eighteenth street northwest. He was born 74 years ago at Yellow Tavern, Henrico county, Va.

During the years of conflict between the North and South Colonel August was strongly identified with the Confederacy, and worked hard for his cause. Following the secession of Virginia from the Union, he joined the Richmond Howitzers, with whom he participated in the battles at Bull Run, Leesburg, Yorktown, Williamsburg, and Malvern Hill. On August 29, 1862, he was commissioned captain of artillery by Governor Letcher, and was assigned to duty on the Virginia State line. He later joined General Lee's army in Virginia, and was made adjutant of the Fifteenth Virginia regiment of infantry. Shortly before the close of the war he was captured by General Sheridan, but was treated as a guest. Colonel August lived for 25 years at Hot Springs.

He is survived by four children, James A. August, of California; Mrs. Eva A. McSherry, of Leesburg; and Mrs. Sarah Bowley and Russell T. August, of this city.

MAY GIVE UP FORT SITE.

Land at Cape Henry it is Said Can't Be Bought for $150,000.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Should the Government be unable to secure 32t acres of land at Cape Henry, Va., for $150,000, the plans for the construction of a mammoth fort at the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay for the protection of Baltimore, Washington, and other bay cities will be indefinitely postponed, if not abandoned altogether, according to a statement made by Secretary of War Garrison to the Appropriations Committee.

This condition of affairs was revealed yesterday afternoon when the Fortifications Appropriations bill was reported to the House. The bill does not carry an additional appropriation for the Cape Henry fort site.

Last year Congress appropriated $150,000 with which to buy the Cape Henry land. Property owners there asked approximately $280,000 for the land the Government wanted. Steps were then taken by the War Department to condemn the land. In the hearings on the Fortifications bill Secretary Garrison, in reply to a question as to whether the land had been bought, said:

"I have been told that the parties who were holding this land were asking an exorbitant price for it and that it is impossible to come to an agreement with them anywhere withing the appropriation. I have instructed the Attorney General to proceed with the condemnation of the land with a view of getting it within the appropriation or else not getting it all all."

Representative Sherley, chairman of the Subcommittee on Fortifications, then remarked that the "appropriation was made after a thorough canvass of the situation and with what we believed was justifiable knowledge as to the valuable land sought. The project itself has been much of a converted one. There was a great deal of opposition on the floor of the House toward entering it at all. Speaking for myself I believe the sentiment of the committee and of Congress at this time is such that Congress would not feel warranted in going forward with that project if it contemplated an increase outlay for the land."

GIRL ON HUNGER STRIKE.

Delilah Bradley Says She Will Starve Herself to Death If Kept From Foster.

Pemberton, N. J., Jan. 24.—Hysteria and tearful pleading to join her lover, Joel M. Foster, ill in New York, gave way to desperation Thursday when Delilah Bradley began a hunger strike.

She says she will continue the strike to death or reunion with Foster.

"I'll starve myself to death if you don't let me go to the man I love!" cried the 16-year-old girl, former Sunday School teacher, who was brought home from Mobile, Ala., by force.

She fought her father, Henry Bradley, and detectives all the way from the city where she and Foster had been living, and where he is now charged with violating the Mann act.

Delilah would eat neither breakfast nor luncheon yesterday. Hunger, combined with her previous hysteria and nervous strain, is fast making her ill. She was weak yesterday afternoon, but still defiant.

The one person in the world she wants is Foster, who, she says, will marry her as soon as he can get a divorce.
